

FOUNDATION®

AAA-ICDR Foundation® Diversity Scholarship Fund

The fund grants diverse law students/professionals with up to $2,000 of financial assistance towards participation in a degree program or fellowship in alternative dispute resolution or attendance at a well-recognized conference. The mission of the Diversity Scholarship Fund is to encourage diversity and inclusion within the field of ADR by supporting the pursuit of knowledge and skill development through training experiences that encourage inclusive leadership growth in the field of ADR.

Eligibility

1. Member of group that has been historically underrepresented in the alternative dispute resolution profession
2. Acceptance in a degree program or fellowship in alternative dispute resolution or confirmation of registration at a well-recognized conference in alternative dispute resolution.
3. Need for financial assistance

Payment of Scholarship

If approved, a check or money transfer will be made payable directly to the institution offering the degree program or, in the case of attendance at a conference or fellowship, to the recipient upon submission of the confirmed conference registration or notice of fellowship acceptance.

Scholarship Application Requirements

The applicant must submit the following in a single PDF document:

1. A completed application (form below)
2. One-page cover letter of interest including details of qualifying ADR degree program, fellowship or well-recognized conference
3. Supporting program materials showing acceptance to an ADR degree program or fellowship or registration to a well-recognized ADR conference.
4. Biography to be used for announcement of scholarship awards
5. JPEG photo to be used for announcement of scholarship awards

Review

The review process will be competitive. Not all applicants will receive award funding. Applicants that do not complete the application as required or do not provide the necessary documentation will be automatically denied. Criteria for review will be:

1. Content and quality of application materials
2. Demonstrated interested in ADR

FOUNDATION®

- 3. Demonstrated financial need
- 4. Any other relevant factors

Deadline

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis and reviewed quarterly until appropriated funds are expended.
